7. Notice Period: Either party may terminate the engagement before completion of the contractual term by giving 30 days' written notice or remuneration in lieu thereof, subject to the provisions of the individual contract and applicable law. This provision shall not affect automatic expiry of the contract on its specified end date or termination otherwise permissible under applicable rules.

8. Remuneration and Benefits: Monthly remuneration and admissible HRA shall be governed by DHR-MRU 16th FC guidelines (Annexure-8), as amended from time to time.
